Answering the following questions will enable your counselor or teacher to write a strong letter of recommendation for you. You are NOT required to answer every question. We advise you to focus on the questions that will give your teachers and counselors the most accurate and unique snapshot of you. Let your answers include information about your life in school as well as experiences outside of school.

- 1) What is your possible major in college? What career goals do you have (what do you want to be when you grow up)? If you don't know, what are some interests that you have that could develop into a career you could be passionate about?

- 2) List five adjectives or phrases that best describe you:

- 3) What are your academic strengths? Include favorite subjects and subjects you excelled in.

- 4) What are your proudest accomplishments? Feel free to include both individual and/or group accomplishments. This can be ANYTHING.

- 5) What are your personal strengths? Don't be modest!

- 6) What are your personal weaknesses?

- 7) Share with us any unusual circumstances or obstacles you have overcome. How did those experiences impact you academically or personally?

- 8) Is your high school record an accurate measure of your ability and potential? If not, what do you consider the best measure of your potential for success in college?

- 9) What might a teacher say regarding your character development and integrity?

- 10) What might a fellow student say regarding your character development and integrity?

- 11) Have you traveled or lived in different locales? Where? Comment on your experiences and what you learned from them.

- 12) Are there linguistics and/or cultural factors that have contributed to or inhibited your high school academic performance? If so, comment on these experiences.

- 13) Describe any work or study experience that has been of special significance to you.

- 14) Provide any additional information that you would like for us to share with the college such as service to others, special talents, or other information that will differentiate you from other students.
